TEXTILE WORKERS IN CONVENTION

Reports Show Decrease in Number of Unions in Good Standing.

(By Associated Press.)
LOWELL, MASS., October 18.—The annual convention of the United Textile Workers of America assembled here today. The representation at the convention was almost entirely from the texthe centers in New England and the In dale States, the past year having been such a disadvantageous period for the southern industry that the unions could not see their way clear to dispatching delegations.

Secretary Albert Hibbert reported that conditions in the textile trade had made it impossible to create a sentiment in favor of organization with the result that membership had decreased. The number of unions in good standing is 126, a loss.

Touching the Fall River strike, he said: Touching the Fall River strike, he said:
"This strike has been on now for twelve weeks, and the people are just as determined to resist this reduction as they were on the first day of the strike,"
In his annual address President Golden said that the lextile industry, not alone of this country, but of every country in the world where cotton manufacturing is carried on, has been passing through is carried on, has depressions ever ex-perienced, and gave as the reasons in his opinion, the short crop of raw material and wild speculation."

TOWN THREATENED.

Disastrous Fire at Rehoboth Beach, Delaware.

Beach, Delaware.

(By Associated Press.)

REHOBOTH BEACH. DELL. October

18.—Fire which broke out here to-day caused by the upsetting of a stove in the cottage of Mrs. King. resulted in a loss of nearly $20,000, and for a time threatened the town with destruction.

Assistance was summoned from Georgetown, Lewes and Wilmington, but before the dames could be got under control the cottages of Mrs. King, Mayor J. T.
Thompson, of Lewes, and J. L. Townsend, lad been destroyed, and a score of others seriously damaged. Sections of the board had been destroyed, and a scare of others seriously damaged. Sections of the board walk were also burned. The Brayton and Townsend Hotels and a large hotel owned by Dallas Marvil were on fire, but were saved by the heroic work of the fire-

John Moody Punished.

John Moody Punished.

Justice John had the Horse Show fever vesterday, and got through with his docket as quickly, as he could so he could go out and see the rough riders.

John Moody was charged with taking a lot of nails from the Chesapeake and Ohlo Railway Company. The charge was proven, and he was given thirty days in fail.

That was the only case, aside from drunks and small disorders. The small cuses took the usual course, and then court closed.

Everybody seemed glad to welcome Little Clips and Mary Marble at the Academy last night, when the big musical extravaganza, "Babes in Toyland," was presented at that house. The two Higou favorites may not have felt at home upon the Academy siage when they first reepped before the footlights, but the andience gave them such a rousing which that it must have made them think that after all they were "back and the stage of the footlights, but the growth of the stage of the footlights, but the addience gave them such a rousing which that after all they were "back and the stage of the stage all is well, for the audience is amused. Dan Marble and Marie Fanchionetti is the life of the chorus but Dan Marble struggles along sally in the same Dan Marble—no versatility. "Babes in Toyland" will be presented. the same Dan Marble-no versatility. "Babes in Toyland" will be presented at matinee and evening performances to-day.

Like "Foxy Grandpa."

"Foxy Grandpa" played to house ca-pacity at the matinee again yesterday afternoon. The audience manifested its appreciation of the work of the players, applauding vigorously. At night the house was again filled, with a repetition of the encores of the opening night. The singing is high class and the dancing fine. The same play will hold the boards all the week, with a matinee to-morrow.

Miss Williams Coming.

"Only a Shop Girl," with Lottle Wil-liams in the title role, comes to the Bijou Monday for a stay of a week. The more announcement that Miss Williams is to return will be sufficient to pack the house all the week.

"The Silver Slipper."

The sliver Slipper.' The six girls in the "champagne dance" in "The Sliver Slipper" were brought to this country by John C. Fisher under contract with George Edwardes, of the London Gryety Theatre, the home of Neille Fairen, Fred Lesile and Letty Lind, and are considered the most proficient sextetic of dancers in this contribution to the sensation wherever presented, and will be reen with a huge company at the Academy to-morrow afternoon and night.
